

Hi, my name is Darlene

Looking for love

Medium Female Staffy x Ridgeback Mix Dog

Darlene is a gentle mature lady who has had a hard life and lots of pups in the past. This is what her foster Mum says: "Affectionate and loving girl. She is fearful and nervous with visitors (even close family and friends), but fine with strangers on street, as long as they don't attempt to pat her. She does not like being locked away when visitors/tradesmen come, will bark, whine and scratch the door. She does not like being stared at or having a smartphone aimed at her for too long to take photos. She can sit, spin and almost stay (but not for long, a work in progress) on command. She is not suitable around children, as likely to knock them over. She is the perfect companion at home with direct family members. She will not touch any furnishings or garden plants, unless there is food there. She cannot be trusted with any food within jumping distance, even if contained, as she is skilled at locating and unpacking food. She loves having her belly rubbed, kissing and cuddling. Does not like having her ears cleaned or nails trimmed, but will tolerate a shower as long as her ...
