My name is EmmyLou Harris, I have lots of energy to play and I love humans and am always up for cuddles and kisses. Snuggles are the best but I also love curling up in my bed for a snooze with my brother! I love to play outside and be around people. I love to learn new things and am a very fast learner, with the help of my favourite treats. I am still in the process of being housetrained. Keep in mind I am only a puppy. Walking on a lead is new for me, and so far it's a little frightening but with the help of my favourite treats and encouragement I will learn fast. I love to play with toys, run around and play with my brother and other foster dogs. I am happy to play on my own with my toys, but I'll always say yes to some playtime with my new family. I'm great with young children and have a really calm nature. I haven't been tested with cats but suggest they will be fine as I a...
