Large Female Bull Arab x Dalmatian x Mastiff Dog

Hi there! I'm Shelby and I came into care with my siblings and my mum. Mum is our Hope- she's a Dalmatian X Dane according to her breeder, and dad is believed to be an Arab. The owner abandoned my mum on a spare block the day she gave birth. She kept saying to concerned neighbours that she would collect us, but after several days when some of my siblings began dying from exposure and she still hadn't, people contacted OTC. When they heard of the situation they intervened. We got some local help (they were a long way away from us) and the council went to collect who survived and put them in a pound cell with some blankets, food and water. There, mum had her last puppy - two days after the others! She was obviously holding as long as she could and felt safest there with the staff watching over our little family. OTC drove out that day to collect us. We are so grateful the council stepped in to help us so that some of us survived!! Not all councils do! We all thrived in care and our mum's bones soon became less visible as she had love, care and a decent diet and shelter. The wo...
