

Hi, my name is Jake

Gentle Giant

Large Male Labrador x Mastiff Mix Dog

Looking for foster or forever home! Jake was recently rescued from an uncertain future after his owners surrendered him to their local pound. We haven't had a lot of time to get to know Jake, but from the very first meeting you can tell what a big softie he is! He is such a happy, chill boy and seems to love everyone! We are seeking a home/foster home for Jake with no other animals and someone home more often than not so he does not get lonely and possibly destructive with being left home alone for long periods of time during the day. He is currently unsure of how to respond around other dogs. Once he has had time to settle and understand that he does not need to be defensive, he may be accepting of other animals but at the moment, being on his own with his special humans is the best decision for him. Jake had a lot of changes recently and seems a little unsure and quite clingy at the moment. We hope once he has settled to some positive changes in his life he will relax and realise he is safe with important people in his life that he can rely on and trust to make the ri...
