

Hi, my name is Squeek

Looking for love

Female Domestic Medium Hair Mix Cat

My name is Squeek. I was surrendered because my family could no longer keep me. I am a funny girl who likes attention but will also tell you when I have had enough. I am a little bit rounder than I should be but aren't we all? nothing a diet can't fix... - I am quite independent, and am happy spending time on my own - However I still love to talk to my owner (very chatty!) and come up for cuddles every day - I am very chill most of the time, I will do a bit of exploring, but am happiest having a nap! First night: - I was very timid, and spent the night sleeping in the sink! - When my foster mum came in and sat with me I couldn't help but go up to her straight away and start interacting - I used my kitty litter straight away and have always been toilet trained About me: - I am a little bit overweight, so I am on a diet, but I don't complain about it too much! - I have a very thick and fluffy coat, it's a little dry at the moment but me and my foster mum are cleaning and brushing it daily, it's getting better! I do molt a lot of hair though (and have to get rid of th...
