Hi, my name is Jasmine & Aladdin

We can show you the world

Female Domestic Short Hair Cat

This perfect brother and sister pair will set your hearts a-flutter like a well constructed Disney masterpiece. The twins were living on the street with a number of other cats and kittens as the result of an out of control hoarding situation. Their shaky start to life left them a little shy, but through the hard work and determination of their foster carers Jasmine and Aladdin are now the cuddliest pair. Don't be fooled though, they play as hard as Abu and Carpet! Aladdin is the more outgoing of the two, he was first to realise that humans are the barers of food and chin scratches and has helped his sister settle right into the domestic life. They have a deep appreciation for the finer things in life. Although seemingly identical, this cheeky pair CAN be told apart. Little Aladdin has some adorable polka dots on his nose (he's ruggedly handsome), while Jasmine enjoys her classic good looks. Jasmine & Aladdin are looking for a strictly indoor only home. They would suit most home and family situations but would likely prefer older children to the littlies if given the ...
