Medium Female Staffy Mix Dog

Elky is an adorable female staffy x that has been bounced around a fair bit in her young life; she is therefore looking for a patient, committed and experienced dog home. She is a high energy staffy x and will need an active home that is willing to take her out and about daily, someone who loves bush walking or hiking would suit her perfectly. She is suitable to live as an only dog, but may suit living with another dog if their personalities and play style match well as she is currently in care with a pack of up to 10 other varying dogs. She is well trained inside, toilet trained and crate trained. Elky is best suited to a home with older kids at least 10 years and up as she is quite unsure about the unpredictable movements and actions of younger kids. She is not suitable to cats, free range poultry or livestock but is friendly with small dogs. She is best suited to a home that is not first time based and has some experience with handling various styles of dogs as she can be quite protective over her new humans. As a rescue her new home will be supported with her o...
