

Hi, my name is Benny

Couch potato

Medium Male American Staffordshire Terrier Mix Dog

Hi I'm Benny! I am a very happy, smoochy and quirky boy! Although i get along with my foster carers dog, i get overly excited and don't know how to react around other dogs. This is something I'll need continued training with! I could go to a home with another dog, but it may just take me a little bit of time to warm up to a new doggo. The dog would also need to be of similar size or larger, and be submissive. I go to training most weeks and my foster mum says its definitely helping me! If you would like to adopt me you will need to continue to take me to training so I can learn how to be the best doggo I can be! I can walk nicely on the lead. But sometimes I bark, cry and pull on the lead when I see another dog as I get very excited. The commands I am learning really well are; sit, wait, gentle, come in, outside, and down. If you will let me I would love to sleep on your bed or the couch however I have been crate trained and I am a good boy in my crate. I love to just snuggle and get lots of cuddles. I get every excited and love to nibble when I pla...
