

Hi, my name is Hope

Looking for love

Small Female Jack Russell Terrier Mix Dog

Hope is a happy friendly girl. She loves people and is great with kids. She will even cope with lively kids and seems to like boys in particular. She is social with other small dogs. She came with huge bilateral inguinal hernias which have been surgically repaired. She has been desexed: one of her ovaries had exploded whilst the other was cystic. It was a huge operation but she is feeling so much better. She has also had a dental and mammary tumour removal. It has been a lot for an old granny, but she is such a sweetheart! She has a short coat and weighs 6.9kg, somewhat overweight. Suit Home Based Worker or Doggie Pal: Unable to cope alone and has shown signs of separation anxiety. Needs human company or other dog pals. Good with Kids: Shown to be good with kids in the controlled environment of the Shelter.
