

Hi, my name is Azkarra

Looking for love

Large Female Mixed Breed Dog

While in care Azkarra has been exposed to a lot of different social situations and has handled them all like a champ! She is very confident and independent and will happily run up to new people to say hello! At the end of a big social day she loves nothing more than snuggling up on you lap for big cuddles. Azkarra is a smart girl and while in care has been learning to sit, stay and to walk on a lead. Her toilet training is coming along nicely, but her new owners should be prepared for a few accidents while she gets used to a new environment. We are looking for a family who are committed to on going training and socialisation.

Puppy school would be a recommended next step to ensure Azkarra continues to grow in to a well mannered, social girl. Azkarra was part of a very big litter to a first time mum and there for all the pups are still quite small and need a little bit extra TLC. Her new family must have the ability to continue 3x daily feeding and provide her with a high quality puppy food. We are looking for a family that are committed to making Azkarra an integral part of...
