

Hi, my name is Roxy

Looking for love

Large Female German Shepherd Dog

Roxy is a beautiful eight year old female German Shepherd who is looking for a new home. Roxy has had some basic obedience training, and like all dogs she will benefit from more training. Roxy is a big boned shepherd and so we recommend a home with older dog savvy children. She is currently living on her own but may be a good companion for another large breed male good natured dog. She is not suited to a home with cats, pocket pets or small dogs. In excellent health and ready for her new home, Roxy is good to walk on a lead we can see her being a wonderful companion dog for a Shepherd Lover. If you think you can give Roxy a new home, please contact us by clicking on the link in the screen "Enquire for this pet".
