

Hi, my name is Tilly

Looking for love

Medium Female American Staffordshire Terrier Dog

Hey There, My name is Tilly and I am looking for my forever home. Could this be with you? I am a super sweet girl and love the company of my hoomans. I would love to be included in your daily routines and go on fun adventures. I would prefer to go home with older kiddos as I can be a little uncomfortable at times with my touch so no kids under 6 please. I understand that you may need to leave me alone at time and that is fine. I would be suited to a home with a nice structured daily routine when people are heading to work/school. Ask my buddies here at the shelter to explain a little about crate training to help me with this.

If you could leave me with lots of toys, kongs and enrichment then that would be awesome I have met some doggos here in shelter but would love to go home as an only dog as I want all the lovin' to myself. I would love to have ongoing socialisation though so if you have any furry friends, then on lead social walks would be excellent. If I sound like the perfect girl for you then please speak to someone at front counter and they will arrange fo...
