Looking for love

Male Domestic Short Hair Cat

Hi there, my name is Simba and I'm a smoochy puss. I love having toys and a nice scratching post to play around with. I can be a little shy to start with, but I'll soon warm up to you. I have a short, easy-care coat. I would like to live in a quiet adult household. I may be happy living with a friendly desexed female cat. I am desexed.

RSPCA adoption animals are desexed, microchipped, vaccinated and up to date with flea and worm treatments before going to their new homes, and this is all included in the adoption fee.
