

Hi, my name is Tux

Best dressed!

Male Domestic Medium Hair Cat

Tux is a shy boy, once you have gained his trust he will want be cuddled and held whenever you are near him. Tux will jump on my lap for pats and if I'm standing he will jump up on the bench and stretch out with his paws on my chest for me to pick him up and give him cuddles. Tux is a quiet kitty, I haven't heard him meow. Tux also loves to sleep under the blanket in his bed, it is sweet watching him burrow into the blanket with only his eyes visible. Tux also loves playing with his brothers, he is the clumsy one out of the three boys and not as brave but he certainly gets in and amongst the play wrestles and chases. Tux comes as a package deal with his brother Harley, they are bonded and inseparable. Have a peak at Harley here: <https://www.petrescue.com.au/listings/728964>

I am happy and healthy and am desexed, vaccinated, microchipped and flea and worm treated. I do have FIV, but as we all know, having FIV is no big deal and I love to rough and tumble with Harley,...
