

Hi, my name is Digga

Looking for love

Male Domestic Short Hair Mix Cat

I'm a big cat who was living rough on the streets of Canning. Some super people decided they couldn't bare to see me as a stray any longer and brought me to Cat Haven to find a new home! I'm excited to try out this "being a pet" thing, so take me home today!! I spent some time in foster trying to gain some confidence. My foster mum said I will need someone who will give me a lot of time to settle in! Please give me the loving home I deserve &3 An unlikely duo, Giz and Dig have overcome a lot in their lives already - and now they are hoping that someone will give them a place they can both call their furrever home! The boys really love each other, and while they sometimes play rough it's all pretty standard teenage boy fights and they just need a stern talking to before they are cuddled up and grooming each other again. Digga: The ultimate C.A.T. that will dig his way into your heart Mr Diggy has come so far, but still needs a special family to help him feel safe. He can get scared quite easily and his first reaction is to hiss but he's really just all talk and just needs pat...
