

Hi, my name is Dotti

Looking for love

Medium Female Staffy Mix Dog

Dotti is a gorgeous, laidback sort of girl who will benefit from a loving forever home where she can continue to grow in confidence. This sweetie will not invade your space, she is happy to just chill on her bed or soak up the morning sun, but very obliging to give you cuddles when you want them. She has also discovered a love for play time with her foster fur brother, playing chasey and tug of war, so a doggie friend would be great. A clever girl, Dotti is learning quickly, she has mastered sit and walks well on her lead, even goes to the toilet when told. Her foster family is introducing her to many new adventures and she finds some a little scary, but with some praise and encouragement she is ready for more. She does make an excellent guard dog and lets you know if someone is at your door. As Dotti is still learning to keep her paws on the floor when excited, she's probably best with older kids. She is fine to be kept outdoors and will sleep in her kennel, but does prefer to be inside at night and loves a good cuddle on the couch before bed. She is so gentle and...
