

Hi, my name is Marvin

Looking for love

Large Male Staghound Mix Dog

When Racing 2 Rehome was contacted about a large boy who had been bought into the local veterinary clinic with not a lot of prospects, we welcomed him into our care with open arms. His name was 2442, so he was quickly renamed Marvin. Marvin is certainly marvellous! Our foster carer we had in mind went down to meet him with his own staffy girl Roxy, just to make sure they were the right fit, and a beautiful friendship blossomed, Marvin has started his new life with his foster Dad and foster sibling Roxy. Well they are having a ball! Marvin is a Staghound x Kelpie we think, he is a large boy, 35kg, black with a splash of white on his chest. He is an affectionate and happy boy! To say Marvin is playful, is only one adjective to describe him, he is also energetic, full of energy, "puppy like" (he is only around 16 months old), friendly and very clever! Marvin and Roxy run around together in their backyard, Marvin of course can easily get away, but Roxy sometimes takes a short cut and can be on his tail again, they have the best time and enjoy each others company. He was taug...
