

Hi, my name is Indiana

Adopt Love!

Female Domestic Short Hair Cat

PLEASE NOTE THAT UNFORTUNATELY WE ARE UNABLE TO FLY OUR ANIMALS EITHER WITHIN WA OR INTERSTATE Meet dear little Indiana! Indiana came to SAFE Esperance as a small kitten with her siblings - some had cat flu, so were brought to SAFE Esperance for care and rehoming. Indiana is a little shy to begin with when meeting new people but if allowed to settle she is a very affectionate and loving kitten, it just takes her a little time and her beautiful personality shines through. She has the most gorgeous purr and loves to be stroked and cuddled, and given time will lie up close to you or on your lap. Indiana has always shared her space with other siblings and kitten friends and could live with another cat with careful and sensitive introduction. Indiana is playful and will play with her toys especially ping pong balls to chase or bouncy balls. Due to her start Indiana still has slightly runny eyes and may occasionally need her eyes gently wiped but this does not affect her health or quality of life. Indiana's ideal home would be gentle and filled with affection - she will then r...
