

Hi, my name is Buggles

Intelligent Sweetheart

Male Netherland Dwarf Mix Rabbit

Buggles is a very sweet boy who would love a lady friend or human to bond to, he is still wary about being picked up. In the time he's been in care he's come along marvellously, still timid about asking for attention and treats. However when he does it is bliss for him and he slowly grinds his teeth with happiness, this boyo is around 2 1/2yrs old. Buggles was owned by a elderly lady and is a bit unsure when free roaming. This boy is definitely very smart and this has helped him get used to and look forward to being around people.
