

Hi, my name is Angel

Looking for love

Medium Female Australian Bulldog Mix Dog

Sweet Angel has come a long way since spending time with us at the facility and now she is ready and all set to start her new life with her forever family. Angel is a Bulldog x born on 9th April, 2013 and is sure to melt your heart. Angel is a total sweetheart who's quirky personality will always have you smiling. She enjoys being out for a walk and although she can pull lightly on lead when first heading out, she quickly settles and has nice lead manners. To help with her continued training, we have included 3 x free training lessons in her adoption fee with thanks to Wyong Dog Training. She enjoys making friends and she gets along well with other dogs, both big and small. While Angel does not mind the company of cats and could be rehomed with a cat in residence, she would be best not to be rehomed with chickens and pocket pets and she does think they are quite fun to chase! Angel shows no signs of food aggression and although she does not seem to be worried by loud noises, we would recommend she be allowed inside during thunder storms and fireworks where she knows s...
