

Hi, my name is Herbert

2nd Chance Cat Rescue

Funny tuxedo boy

Male Domestic Short Hair Cat

Herbert (or Snot as he is affectionately known) is a beautiful little tuxedo boy. When Herbert arrived at the rescue, he and his siblings all had cat flu. But this poor guy couldn't shake it as easily as the others, hence his nickname 'Snot'. After many weeks of medication, this little man is fighting fit and ready to find a new home like his brothers and sisters have! Herbert is currently residing with 2 adult cats, which he gets along great with, so he will probably enjoy having a feline companion around. He is playful, inquisitive and so well behaved he would sometimes take his medicine willingly! If you think you can offer this handsome young chap a caring and loving home, please fill out an application for review by his foster carer. Located in Frankston North
