

Hi, my name is Scrumpy On Trial With My New Owner

Good companion

Small Male Terrier x Terrier Mix Dog

Scrumpy is a lovely little boy who once he knows and trust you will make someone a wonderful companion. He is small/medium in size. Scrumpy would suit best a home that wants a friend to watch TV with and spend time with. He takes time to get used to new people as wants to protect his owner and property so needs to be introduced slowly but once he does trust he gets excited when he sees you and goes wizzing around the yard/house. He will sit for food and give paw. He is ok with other dogs that are very easy going but not as good with higher energy dogs. Best a home without another dog as will do much better on his own with time playing with other friends dogs when out for walks. He isn't keen on cats. Best home for Scrumpy is as a companion dog for someone who doesn't have children or many visitors. When people visit he needs to be put in another room or outside until time he gets used to regular visitors then he will be ok. Scrumpy needs someone who is experienced with terrier breeds. He is not for first time dog owners or families with children as has been tormented by c...
