

Hi, my name is Mimi

Shy & Sweet Tabby

Female Domestic Short Hair Cat

Mimi is a former street cat who is undergoing rehabilitation into domestic life. She is making great strides, she needs an owner who is interested in assisting her with this and allowing her to bloom at her own slow, steady pace - she is an absolutely adorable, sugar sweet work in progress. This is what her foster carer says: Mimi is an incredibly sweet kitty who, despite having a rough start, is fully embracing domestic life and all its comforts. Mimi is a quiet observer and a fabulous work-from-home companion. She is shy at first, but over the course of a few weeks will learn to love and trust you. Although Mimi isn't a lap cat, she will choose a snooze spot in close proximity to you and graciously accept gentle head pats. She loves watching the goings on around the house and does so with a very curious disposition. This sweet kitty also has a playful side. Come evening, Mimi loves to play with and chase her small plastic ball toy (and sometimes even her tail!). She is a remarkably easygoing, exceptionally lovable, and frankly very entertaining cat. She would be f...
