

Hi, my name is Firehouse Harris

Looking for love

Male Domestic Short Hair Mix Cat

I'm a really shy boy but this foster house already had another foster cat who I made friends with right away. I love to hang around him and play with him, sleep with him and explore with him and he has taught me that humans aren't anything to be scared of, and I'll hang about where they are but I'll still take my chances and only approach if they are offering me some roast chicken. If they get close enough, sometimes I'll let the humans pick me up for a cuddle, one day I might start to enjoy it. For now, I'll let them give me pats and scratches under the chin, I'll even give a purr every now and then but only if they come at me gently and don't scare me. I've become a lot braver in the last couple of weeks, who knows what the future holds with the right forever home - maybe you could consider adopting my foster brother too? We're an entertaining pair, the humans are always laughing at our antics and taking photos of us cuddling together. The humans reckon I'm no ordinary looking tabby, something about my bright orange eyes, dark black nose and lips and black toe beans gives me a b...
