Looking for love

Medium Male Staffy Mix Dog

Cooper is an energetic young man who is looking for a new home. He can be fostered, or even fostered with the view to adoption. who loves basking in the sun and playing tug of war or playing with his ball. After a big walk or play in the backyard, he loves to have a cuddle with his favourite people. Cooper is shy to begin with, but warms up quickly, especially if you have a nice treat for him. He loves treats such as boiled chicken, chicken heart, pig ears, roo tail and bone marrow. He likes to have his food from a food puzzle or toy, to give his clever brain a workout. Cooper will need continued practice with lead work and socialisation skills, as he is still learning not to react to other dogs and strangers on walks. He can become anxious in new places or around strange noises. He is happiest as your only dog at home, and isn't suited to a place with other pets or young kids. As Cooper has some work to do on manners, he will need an experienced owner who can set boundaries and provide structure in the home, while continuing his training. However, he is completely ho...
