

Hi, my name is Piper (Aka Pip Squeak)

Cat Friendly & Talkative

Female Domestic Short Hair Cat

Piper's got her nick-name Pip Squeak because she is the smallest of all her brothers and sisters. But has the biggest squeaky meow. This girl likes to talk. If you like a cat that is looking for a conversation, this girl is up for it! Despite her small size, she is feisty, and brave. She loves to play with balls and jump like crazy to catch moths. Piper is also great with other cats, and seems to take to them like they are her mum or dad. She hasn't met any dogs yet, but I think she would love a nice cat-friendly dog to play with if one happened to be around. Piper is looking for a home with a loving owner, and preferably a safe outdoor space like a deck, or closed in yard that she can play in occasionally. She would be happy as part of a family, or as a companion to a single person. This girl will reward you with much love, purrs, fun and a good old chat.
