

Hi, my name is Cream And Puff ☐☐

Sweet and Adorable ☐

Female Angora Mix Rabbit

Cream and Puff were found as strays in horrific condition, their coats were stained, filled with sand and completely matted. After a well needed groom they are nice and healthy now!

They are a beautiful pair that love their food and will pretty much eat anything you give them. Cream and Puff love being free roam and zooming around everywhere. Their fur is super floofy and due to this is will have to be regularly brushed and groomed, we can provide you with the name of an amazing groomer that we recommend 😊 Cream is a loving bun, she will always follows you around the house, and is a total sucker for cuddles and loves. Whereas Puff is still very wary of people but he is slowly warming up and letting people give him head rubs and cuddles. With time he will be the bestest bun around! Both have been desexed, vaccinated and microchipped and are litter trained! They are looking for an amazing indoor furever that can give them all the love they deserve. If you think they are the perfect fit, please send us a message ☐
