Male Domestic Short Hair Cat

🐱 INTRODUCING SPIRO 🐱 Hello there, my name is Spiro! Not too long ago I was living the good life as a stray in a retirement village, boy was I living the life! The people there took me to their local vet because they thought I was pregnant! Can you imagine! I mean, okay maybe I HAD put on a little weight with all those treats as I went from house to house. I'm feeling much better now after going on a little diet, but I'm still a big boy. I'd love to find another home where I can be spoilt (just with love this time). I was very, very scared when I first arrived at my foster home, in fact I forgot myself a little and my first mum thought I was an angry boy that might not ever be able to find my own home, but boy did I show her! I love to head bob other cats and would do well with kitty siblings to snuggle with. I am really just a gentle giant and I now love to smooch with people. I love to flop over and roll around on the floor, rub against you and wiggle around so you scratch all my favourite spots. Especially under the chin! I am untested with children and pets, o...
