

Hi, my name is Loving Tatiana

friendly and patient

Female Domestic Short Hair Cat

This special girl (tortie/female) was rescued from the streets, is FIV positive (further information below) and is looking for her forever home where she can be spoiled and live a long, healthy and happy life. Her carer was taking a morning walk and saw her lying in the grass, called out and this friendly girl came straight over for a pat and chin scratch. She was dirty, and so underweight you could see her ribs poking out. Her carer began bringing her food everyday, and this beautiful girl was always waiting in the same spot at the same time, running over to greet them and rubbed against her carers legs to say thank you. After some investigating her carer found out Tatiana was a local stray cat, who used to be fed by an elderly lady who had been admitted to hospital. This story broke her carers heart and she was popped into a carrier and taken home. Tatiana has been an absolute darling in foster care, her friendly nature and loving patience has made her a delightful friend to her carers 2 yr old son whom she loves to greet with a kiss. She is sure to do well in a family wit...
