

Hi, my name is Oreo, Rose & Scarlett

Bonded sibling trio

Female Domestic Short Hair Cat

Oreo, Rose and Scarlett are brother and sisters who showed up suddenly, arranged like garden gnomes, in our foster carer's backyard. They were born as strays in the wild and desperate for food, and were very fluffy, to try and stay warm during the winter cold they were living through. They were eating mice and things in an empty block of land opposite the carers place, that has overgrown grass. Our foster carer took them in and has looked after them since for a few years, where they have transformed from being naturally very skittish and apprehensive around humans, to loving the attention. It took months of feeding them nightly in his backyard before they became trusting enough that he could take them in. They will still be wary around new people, but once they get to know you, they are incredibly gentle and sweet and all the more appreciative and affectionate with the person who is patient with them. Oreo is a big burly boy, the most extroverted of the bunch, and enjoys a bit of rough housing, as well as mountains of food. He is the most comfortable with being picked up and wi...
