

Hi, my name is Sasha

Looking for love

Medium Female Kelpie x Staffy Dog

Beautiful Sasha is ready to find her forever home. Born on 6th June, 2017, Sasha is a Kelpie x Staffy who would love to meet you. Sasha is a special gal who has so much love to give.

She has not had the best life up until now and arrived with us at the facility absolutely terrified of people, the world and everything in it. Since being with us, she has now learned to trust people and is ready to give all of that trust and love to her very own family. Sasha has so much love to give, that she does not want to share her favourite people with anyone else and would need to be the only "child" of the family. She should not be rehomed with any other animals. Sasha just loves to be out exploring the world with you and she loves to run! She would suit an active family who are prepared to give her the exercise she needs. Sasha has super nice lead manners and is happy to trot along beside you when out walking.

She is a smart young lady and will sit when asked. Sasha would love to learn more and would benefit from continued training with her new family. While she does n...
