

Hi, my name is Pepper

GENTLE NATURE

Medium Female American Staffordshire Bull Terrier Mix Dog

PEPPER IS CURRENTLY ON TRIAL IN A NEW HOME Pepper is a very loving, gentle natured girl looking for her forever home. She is currently in foster care while she awaits her new loving family to come along. Pepper loves cuddles, pats and going for walks! She would make a great companion for someone who wants company throughout the day or works Away part of the week and would love a snuggle buddy in the evening! She is great with people and children and loves to be the centre of attention. She seems to be good with other animals (both dogs and cats) in passing, but has not been fostered with another pet. Pepper would benefit from a relatively calm home where she can take her time to settle into her new surroundings and bond with her new family. Pepper is young at heart and enjoys her walks in the morning and running around with her squeaky toy in the evenings. She's happiest when she's playing with her family, but very content to sleep for most of the day if that's the plan."
