

Hi, my name is Shelby

Loyal companion

Medium Male Golden Retriever Mix Dog

This handsome man is Shelby, he is our 4 yr old Golden Retriever X. Shelby is currently an only dog but is a very social dog and we think he would do well with a mate to keep him company while his humans are at work or enough mental stimulation to occupy him throughout the day if he is an only dog. Shelby will also need a home without cats. Shelby can be a very high energy dog so is ideally looking for a family that will take him for walks daily and work off his energy. Shelby absolutely loves people and can get a little excited upon meeting new people but does listen when told to settle down. He is a quick learner and loves to please the people around him. He currently lives with a special needs child and is very gentle and respectful around him. They are best buds. Shelby will need a secure yard, and would be suited to a large yard so he has room to run and play. Shelby would love to be made apart of his new family and would love to go on adventures with them. He is currently an outside only dog. If you think Shelby sounds perfect for your family and y...
