

Hi, my name is Mika

Looking for love

Large Female Rottweiler Mix Dog

Are you looking for a dog who loves affection and will have it at anytime of the day? Mika is overall a sweet, slightly timid dog who just needs someone to show her she can be confident when in new environments and meeting new people. Mika can be timid with new people. She does show some signs of area guarding when you walk past her kennel during the day or of a night time. This behaviour is due to her hyper arousal not aggression. Mika can settle and perform a default down at her kennel door. When Mika becomes more comfortable with her human she starts to rub against you, initiating touch herself. She can get hyper aroused with excessive touch and softly mouth arms so its important to not get her too excited. Mika would be suited to go home to a family that has children over 12. Mika can be timid walking in new environments, stalling in new areas she is unsure of. However she is easily convinced that she can do it through food motivation. In comfortable environments she walks on a loose lead. Mika is very food motivated and also likes chasing toys. She must meet al...
