

Hi, my name is Pepper

Independent and Sweet

Female Domestic Short Hair Cat

Pretty little Pepper manages to be both an independent creature and an affectionate one.

She enjoys spending a few hours of the day in a quiet spot on her own, but when she is ready, she will curl up next to you for company or pats, and after getting to know you a bit better, she will sit on your lap. Pepper has her playful moments too and she can get the zoomies when she wants something – typically either her breakfast or to be let outside for some fresh air. Pepper will need some outdoor access; even if it is a bit of supervised time on a secure balcony where she can watch the world go by. She would also be happiest if she was rehomed in a space bigger than her foster carers' small apartment with a bit more space to explore and to hide when she wants her alone time. Before applying to meet one of our cats, please ensure that you: - have the agreement of all members of the household to adopt a Cat, - have your landlords permission to keep a pet.
