

Hi, my name is Melissa

Looking for love

Female Domestic Medium Hair Mix Cat

Little miss Melissa is a petite queen who deserves to be treated as such. This sweet girl had a bit of a rough start to life and is now ready to live the high life! She does like other cats but can be a little bit snarky if they are too in her space so a slow and appropriate introduction is a must. She also does not like to share food so any other kitties in the house will need to be fed away from her. Although she has never had much interaction with dogs apart from staring them down from a distance, she may be ok with a doggo in the household as long as she is introduced slowly and given plenty of opportunity to get away if she feels the need to. Melissa is a quirky girl who can be incredibly affectionate once she learns to trust someone and is generally quite easy going and tends to settle into new environments quite quickly. She does not really care for being picked up and held but will tolerate it. This amazing girl would love a home where she has a nice sunny spot to sit in, or even better, a nice safe enclosed cat max for her to snooze her days away. Really she is ju...
