

Hi, my name is Harley

Looking for love

Female Domestic Medium Hair Mix Cat

Beautiful Harley is a bit of a timid girl to begin with however in the right home she is bound to warm up quickly and will be giving her new humans lots of little nose kisses in no time. She is incredibly cat social and would love a little friend at home to snooze her days away with but is not the most playful cat so a young boisterous kitten may be a bit too much for her. As she is quite shy still she will be best suited to a home with no dogs and no small humans as they can be a little bit frightening for her. Harley will need to be an indoor only cat as if let outside she will be a flight risk. She would however LOVE a home where she has either a nice open window to snooze in front of or a lovely safe enclosed cat max so she can still spend some time sunbaking, taking in the fresh scents of the outside world, feeling the grass below her feet, but in a safe manner! Harley will require an experience cat owner who is willing to be patient and allow her to get to know her new humans at her own pace. She is not too fond of being picked up and would much rather approach you ...
