

Hi, my name is Magic Bean

learning to sing

Female Parrot

Magic Bean was found lost and scared on a windy night. Despite our best efforts we have been unable to reunite her with her original family. Magic Bean is not well socialised, she doesn't want to sit on shoulders or anything. She needs a calm and patient family who can cope with her need for space and the noise she makes if she is distressed by sudden movements. She is learning to sing and has picked up a few notes. This might be the avenue to connect with her.

No medical issues have arisen
