

Hi, my name is Victor

Sweet & friendly floof

Male Domestic Medium Hair Cat

Found wandering the streets in a terrible state, Victor was handed in to the pound but nobody came for him. He received care and veterinary treatment, and started to feel better but found the pound a very stressful environment and started overgrooming... his tail still has a bald patch but it's growing back now and he's looking magnificent and floofy again. Victor is a lovely, kind boy who is so happy to be back inside! He is very food focussed, he will remind you, verbally, when it's 6pm - it's DINNER TIME! No need to set an alarm in the morning either. Victor is definitely not a fussy eater and is happily wolfing down his raw food and supplements morning and night. Victor is gloriously happy to see his carer and is always right where they left him. They report that it's a delight to see Victor's happy tail waves and meows after a long day of work. Victor is a big smooch, he's always up for cuddles and scratches (especially behind his ears!). Victor is very forgiving, curious, gently playful (especially teasers, his favourites) and absolutely can't wait to have more space to e...
