

Hi, my name is Reggie

Looking for love

Medium Male Australian Stumpy Tail Cattle Dog x Kelpie Mix Dog

Reggis is a charming, affectionate, goofy lad who will need to be allowed indoors to be apart of the family as he is a very social boy who loves to be around people and would benefit being included in everyday activities. Reggie is a goofy man who dances when he is excited so crate/mat training to give him an area to switch off and recommend keeping him mentally stimulated as well as physically as he is a very smart working breed who is keen to keep learning! Reggie likes his food so it is recommended he be fed from enrichment! Milk bottles, Kong's, egg cartons, wobblers, go slow bowls etc this will slow him down and provide mental stimulation. Reggie must meet other dogs at time of adoption, recommend calm, tolerant social female as he can be intrusive when first meeting other dogs. Reggie is recovering from surgery after having his right front leg removed but this wont stop him living a long and fun filled life. If you think I might be the perfect fit for your family, please fill out an adoption application today! <https://www.rspcaqlld.org.au/expression-of-intere...>
