

Hi, my name is Reggie  A Special Pup  Special Needs Puppy

Medium Male Staffy Dog

Reggie is a staffy puppy born on 22/7/2020. Reggie is a delightful puppy. He is playful, inquisitive and a very loving little puppy. He has a spunky personality, and whilst small definitely has no issues in standing up for himself. (He's the toughest one out of the litter!) He loves to wrestle with his parents and has no problems in fitting in with other dogs. He loves a fuss and is really affectionate towards children. He has been diagnosed with a mild version of a condition called Cerebellar Hypoplasia (only MRI can conclusively diagnose this). He has some issues with his coordination and doesn't like too many stairs. Reggie is getting better each day and so much more confident. Reggie definitely doesn't let his condition phase him and as he's growing older he is stabilizing and his coordination is improving. He has a characteristic trait of tilting his head to one side which gives the impression that he's listening to your every word! Each day his condition is getting better. The illness is not progressive and the dog will not get worse with age. If dogs ...
