

Hi, my name is 1858 - Kitty

Looking for love

Female Domestic Short Hair Cat

☐☐ MEET KITTY ☐☐ I'm the super-shy and super-beautiful Kitty. I enjoy sitting in the sun and in my cat-tree. I was found living as a stray and when I came into care I was pregnant. I had my babies at my foster home - three beautiful boys who have since all found homes of their own. I've been wondering when it will be my turn to find a patient and kind owner who will give me lots of time to settle in. I have been living with my foster family for eight months now and I have come quite a way. I used to hide all of the time but now I will walk around the room and play with the other cats, but I'm still not very good at being touched. Sometimes my foster mum sneaks in a few pats but I generally will run before you can get your hands on me! I like sitting around and watching the world go by. I know that it may sound like a lot, but I am truly just a sweet girl who is looking for a home of my own. I would make a great cat to keep your own cats company, and with the right people you may be able to eventually work up to patting me. After living my life on the streets for so long a...
