

Hi, my name is Remington

Mr Suave

Large Male Alaskan Malamute Dog

REMINGTON Alaskan Malamute Male (D) 14 Months Old Located : Mt Kuring-Gai, NSW I like to consider myself as an international man of mystery. A cheeky con-artist with the charisma that makes the ladies swoon and the men green with envy. Reality is I'm more like a clumsy newborn colt who trips over his own legs with a tongue that perpetually hangs out of my mouth. Derp, doofus if you will. My dreams consist of growing up in to Bond, James Bond. For now I am more Steele, Remington Steele. You may also feel free to call me Chewy, perhaps as a timely reminder that shoes and socks should either be on your feet or out of my rather high reach. The rebellion can sometimes be strong. When it comes to all other aspects of life I'm like a child on their first day at kindy. I want to learn, and look towards my cougar gal-pal Belle for guidance in dog etiquette and self-moderation that can only come with age... then promptly ignore these lessons by instigating another rousing game of bitey face and indoor zoomies. My new family must come with at least one other friendly...
