

Hi, my name is Mouse

an amateur comedian

Large Male Greyhound Dog

Mouse considers himself somewhat of an amateur comedian. He'll do anything to get a laugh out of you when you least expect it. He is master of the 'surprise joke' - quietly sitting in the corner one moment, being a total goof the next. He is an incredible energy to be around, not to mention ridiculously good-looking. His striking fawn fur attracts attention everywhere he goes, and when paired with his razor sharp ears that stick up when he is on high alert he truly looks like a kangaroo! A handsome appearance works quite favourably for Mouse, as strangers will often stop him on his daily walks to ask for a pat. This is all part of his clever plan; nothing makes him happier than being doted on by as many people as possible. The phrase 'quiet as a mouse' doesn't really suit Mouse much. He's a talker, making funny 'wow-wow' sounds whenever he hears another dog barking in the neighbourhood. However, he is still weary of meeting other dogs in real-life, tending to steer clear and look for the humans near by instead. Never content unless he is the centre of attention, Mouse crav...
