

Hi, my name is Xavier

a good morning smooch

Large Male Greyhound Dog

When the Deputy Prime Minister encouraged unemployed Australians to become fruit pickers in northern QLD, we had to hold Xavier back from hopping on a plane to the sunny state! He thought it sounded like the dream job, as he has a total fascination with fruits and vegetables. Each visit to the kitchen is a new adventure where he can investigate new produce his humans bring home each day. If he's lucky, Xavier gets even gets to try (dog friendly) fruits and veggies. Other times he'll just inspect the food with endless fascination. If he's not in the kitchen you can find Xavier cuddling with his humans. He's got a big heart and lots of love to share. After a full nights sleeping, Xavier is full of beans and ready to give his humans the BIGGEST good morning smooch. His sweet spot is his neck; once you start you just can't stop lest he becomes the world's biggest sook! Xavier would suit a home with lots of people who are able to give him all the attention he deserves. He is quite the looker too. Fluffier than most greyhounds and a beautiful fawn colour, Xavier captures attent...
