

Hi, my name is Empoleon

Looking for love

Male Domestic Short Hair Mix Cat

Hi my name is Empoleon but my friends call me Emphy for short. The first thing you will probably notice about me are my enormous, beautiful eyes. My foster mum says the eyes are the window to our soul and she says the size of my eyes directly match the size of my heart and soul. I am a young boy who is looking for a very special home as I have some extra special needs. I am sweet natured, affectionate and a little bit cheeky, I am a teenager after all! I am looking for quiet, loving home with patient adults and mature children if you have kids who will understand that I need some extra special care. I am learning to trust people and doing extremely well on this front however you will need to be patient with me and allow me to have some time to get to know and trust you before we can be the very best of friends. Once we have achieved this I will shower you in affection as I have recently discovered the joy of cuddles, pats, scratches and smooches which I just can't get enough of from my foster mum especially when I am all snuggled up with her. The other thing I love more tha...
