

Hi, my name is Pippa

Looking for love

Small Female Maltese Mix Dog

Little Pippa is an absolute delight! She was surrendered to our Inspector after a visit to check on her and other dogs in the household. She had a bad flea infestation, causing some loss of hair along her back and extreme irritation, which is rapidly improving now that there are no fleas! Pippa also had a "cherry eye" for which she has had surgery, and whilst there is still a little swelling at this stage, her eye is beginning to look much better and less irritated.

(These photos were taken pre-surgery). Unfortunately little Pippa also needed to have several teeth removed, but she has recovered from that very quickly and the next day was wanting to have a gnaw on a pig's ear! Unlike we mere humans following major surgery, dogs don't sit around feeling sorry for themselves, they just get on with enjoying life! Pippa is very well housetrained, not a yapper, and she is very energetic and playful. It seems no one has told her that at almost 13 years of age, she is an elderly lady, so she doesn't see why she should act like one. She would enjoy a home where she can be with h...
