Hi, my name is Peppermint

Looking for love

Female Netherland Dwarf Mix Rabbit

Hi I'm Pepperment, I'm currently on the hunt for our new home! I currently live outside in a hutch, but I would love the opportunity to be indoor bunny, with outside plays during the day. I've been told these scary things called mozzies can carry diseases that will kill me. Waggin Tails have vaccinated me against one of those yucky viruses though. I'm a super snuggly bun. I love pats and cuddles and will give you lots of sniffs. You should see how fast my nose moves!! I was from a bonded pair, but unfortunately my other half passed away suddenly last week. I am still grieving her loss and will need extra cuddles in this time. I'd love a home where I can be boss and get to hop around the house with you! I'd prefer a home with kids over 6 please! I'd love to meet you!
