

Hi, my name is Rory

Adopt love!

Medium Male Mixed Breed Dog

Hi! I'm Rory, a new roly poly pup in the SAFE program. I've just moved into my foster home, so there'll be info coming about my personality soon. I've been vet checked and now I'm ready for a permanent home. I'm also getting a professional photoshoot done soon so you'll be able to see how gorgeous I really am! Want to know more about how you teach a pup to be a great dog? I'd like to do training every day so that I learn the commands of sit, stay, come, down, no, stop and leave it. And once I've learnt them, I need to keep practicing them every day too. That way I'll learn to obey what you tell me to do. Being consistent and clear with your boundaries will mean I always know the right way to behave. Getting out to exercise at least once a day (and twice for working dog breeds) is vital to stimulate my brain and body. It creates important opportunities for me to meet strangers, other dogs and other animals, plus it tires me out! Tell me ""no"" if I'm chewing something I shouldn't and give me a chew toy instead. I'd love to have a range of chew toys that you can swap around so I do...
