

Hi, my name is Marley

Shy

Female Domestic Short Hair Mix Cat

Marley is a lovely gentle soul, can be a little shy with people she does not know but it does not take her long to warm to anyone who gives her some attention and has patience. She gets on with all her feline friends in the cattery and like all the cats loves to explore and play. She can be very affectionate but does not push herself forward when people come to visit. She is immunised, micro chipped and de-sexed, and regularly treated for worms and fleas.
